

RESUME
Christiane F. Hill

UNDERGRADUATE EDUCATION

- Oral Roberts University “Alpha Class” (1965-1969)
 - Major in French and Spanish. Minor in German.
 - Honors: Dean’s Rolls
B.A. (cum laude) with Honors in French (4.0)
- Universidad Iberoamericana, Mexico City, Mexico (Summer, 1966)
 - Areas of concentration: Cultural history, Spanish grammar and speech
- McGill University, Montreal, Canada (Summer, 1967)
 - Areas of concentration: Phonetics, French-Canadian history, French literature
- University of Vienna, Vienna, Austria (Junior Year Abroad, 1968)
 - Areas of concentration: Spanish and French literature, German language and culture

GRADUATE EDUCATION

- Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont (Summer, 1969)
 - French Master of Arts program
- Smith College, Northampton, Massachusetts (1969-1970)
 - Completed requirements for Master of Arts in Teaching degree (French)

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY AT ORAL ROBERTS UNIVERSITY

January 1971 – May 1975

Instructor of foreign languages. German, Spanish, and French at elementary and intermediate levels.

August 1983 - present

Assistant Professor of Foreign Languages. Elementary and Intermediate levels of French and Spanish, and German. Advanced German courses (Business German, Culture and Civilization, Survey of Literature). Advanced French courses (Phonetics, Business French, Literature I and II, Composition, French Culture and Civilization). Taught Biblical German in ORU’s Graduate School of Theology. Past Supervisor of Foreign Language Education (12 years). Past secretary of Academic Advisory Committee. Past member of Research Committee. Served on Faculty Development, Promotion, and Tenure Committee, Scholarship and Awards Committee, and “Education Connection” Committee. Served as secretary of College of Arts and Cultural Studies (2011-2012). Prepared Modern Language Department documentation for assessment by National Teacher’s Certification Accreditation Agency (NCATE) (2000-2001). Served as Group Leader with study trips to Germany and Austria (2004), France, Switzerland, Austria, and Germany (2006), Italy, France, and Austria (2008), Berlin, Czech Republic, and Switzerland (2009), and France (Normandy and Brittany) (2012). Serving as German and French Club advisor.

OTHER EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Northampton High School, Northampton, Massachusetts (1970)

English tutor to Puerto Rican students.

International Translating Service, Daytona Beach, Florida (1975)

Founder and organizer of a firm which was engaged in translating business correspondence, literary excerpts, and personal letters.

University of Houston, Houston, Texas (1976-1977)

Instructor of Foreign Languages. Elementary and advanced Spanish grammar courses.

Tulsa Junior College, Tulsa, Oklahoma (1977-1980)

Instructor of Foreign Language. Elementary Spanish and French courses.

University of Tulsa, Tulsa, Oklahoma (1977-1980)

Instructor of Foreign Languages. Elementary German, advanced conversational and Intermediate Spanish, Elementary and Intermediate French. During the Spring of 1979 organized and supervised all aspects (logistical and teaching) of a travel course to Mexico (Mexico City, Taxco, and Cuernavaca).

Monte Cassino School, Tulsa, Oklahoma (1981-1983)

Instructor of Foreign Languages. Beginning and Advanced Spanish grammar and Spanish literature for regular and honor students. Senior Class sponsor.

MEMBERSHIPS AND HONORS

- Invited attendee at a Fulbright-sponsored conference of academic programs and international studies in Graz, Austria (1986)
- Oklahoma Foreign Language Teachers Association
- American Association of Teachers of Spanish, French, and German
- International Club of Tulsa
- Pan American Round Table
- Alliance Francaise
- Inclusion in "The World Who's Who of Women in Education" (1977)
- Pi Delta Pi (National French Honor Society)
- Sigma Delta Pi (Spanish Honor Society)
- Teacher Excellence Award and Promotion (1994)
- Faculty Showcase Honorable Mention (2004)
- Established the Christiane Hill French Overseas Study Award from own personal financial sources (2012)

