Students accepted into the Music Major Program at ORU are required to pass an audition in the major area of performance as listed on this application form. These auditions should be scheduled as soon as possible, preferably in person, although a recent good-quality tape is acceptable. It is to the student’s advantage to send the best reproduction possible so their performance may be accurately evaluated. Also, please be sure to label the tape with your name, address, and instrument.

Audition Repertoire

Students in each area of performance should be prepared to play or sing certain required selections and exercises. As indicated below:

1. Pianist - a composition by J.S. Bach; a movement or two from a classical sonata by Mozart, Haydn, or Beethoven; two contrasting compositions from the Romantic period (Chopin, Schumann); and one composition by a 20th-century composer (Bartok, Copland, etc.); all major scales with both hands simultaneously in sixteenth notes at M.M. 104*, two octaves.

*Students who do not want to be a performance keyboard major may play scales at M.M.80

2. Organists - three or four compositions from standard organ literature of various periods (Bach, Franck, or Mendelssohn); or play piano audition (above).

3. Singers - one song in a foreign language (Italian, French, or German); two additional compositions in contrasting styles and periods. Songs found on State Music Contest lists are acceptable.

4. String Players - a movement from a Bach solo sonata or partita; a first movement from a concerto; and another work of your own choosing; major and minor scales in sixteenth notes at M.M.104.

5. Wind and Brass Instruments - three selections of contrasting styles from the standard repertoire (sonatas, concertos, solo pieces of contest quality); all major and minor scales.

6. Percussion - three selections of contest repertoire; an exercise inclusive of rudiments; solo selections to include use of mallets.

Must have a basic fret board knowledge (0-12th fret) and be able to play the ionian, mixolydian and aeolian (natural minor) scale. A finger style or classical piece could be substituted for the above qualifications. A demonstration of finger-picking is a plus. Demonstration of the various styles that the student can produce, including praise and worship, can be demonstrated. If student is unable to come to the campus for a live audition, a video tape audition is an alternative.

8. Composition Majors - must complete one of the auditions above according to your primary instrument; and provide a written and taped copy of two pieces that you have composed within the last 2 years.
