Introduce Yourself

Discussion Topic

Introduce yourself during your first week in this course. As you participate in this activity, here's what we're looking for:

1. Update your profile in D2L with a photo of yourself and information as directed in the Faculty Profile Writing Guide.pdf.
2. Watch this video to learn how to update your profile in D2L.
3. Using your professional bio, introduce yourself to your fellow faculty members in the discussion forum. You'll be introducing yourself in this way when you facilitate courses at ORU, making the first post in class introductions.
4. Attach a photo that can be used with your faculty bio to your initial discussion post.
5. Respond to at least one other colleague in the forum
