This year's Homecoming will be different because it's going to be virtual! It will last longer and feature some events that we haven't done before. Best of all, we plan to highlight more of our alumni from all around the world. Mark these days on your calendar: November 9-14. Then, get ready to enjoy Homecoming from home. All events are FREE!

HONORING OUR DONORS

We are so grateful for everyone who supports ORU. It's our donors' generosity that enables us to develop whole leaders for the whole world! In a little while, we will be recognizing donors who made gifts to ORU during our most recent fiscal year (May 1, 2019-April 30, 2020) by publishing an online "Honor Roll of Donors." If you would prefer to remain anonymous, please let us know; we won't post your name online. You can email us at development@oru.edu.

SAYING FAREWELL

Two beloved members of the ORU family passed away recently. Dr. Jimmy Buskirk, the founding dean of the College of Theology and Ministry, served at ORU from 1976 to 1984. His pastoral impact extended far beyond his administrative role, touching the lives of not just theology students, but faculty, staff, and alumni. He entered heaven on September 9. His memorial service will take place on September 29 at 11:00 a.m. CDT at First United Methodist Church in Tulsa and will be streamed live: <http://fumctulsa.online.church> and on Facebook at <http://facebook.com/fumctulsa>.

Dr. Terry Law, a 1969 graduate, was the co-founder of Living Sound International, a music ministry team that traveled all over the world to share the gospel. He later founded World Compassion Terry Law Ministries to expand his work and bring humanitarian aid to countless souls in desperate and perilous situations. He entered heaven on August 31. His memorial service was held in ORU's Christ's Chapel on September 8.
