

*Music is more than a gift
or universal language:*

IT IS A POWERFUL HUMAN EXPRESSION.

As a talented performer, you are driven to communicate through this expression. ORU offers the opportunity to develop your technique and hone your craft in a professional setting and distinctive Christian environment.

Whether celebrating our most triumphant moments or underscoring our daily tasks, music is a God-given tool for healing the human soul, a tool that belongs in your hands.

THE NATIONALLY ACCREDITED ORU MUSIC DEGREE PROGRAMS

honor tradition and foster innovation with uncompromising standards of musical excellence. You will receive a solid foundation to pursue a career in performance, music education, composition, ministry, music technology, graduate work or more.

Your education will be led by expert faculty with worldwide performance credentials. The rich musical life within our program is supported by a wide range of musical activities. In addition to the guest artists, touring events, worship experiences and concerts hosted in Tulsa, various musical traditions are found in and around the city: The Tulsa Symphony, the longstanding Tulsa Opera and the internationally acclaimed Tulsa Ballet Theater.

Music Education students interface with the ORU College of Education and take advantage of observation and teaching opportunities in local school systems, while the Sacred Music and Worship Arts track allows you to engage with the world both in time-honored and new ways through sacred or contemporary worship.

The ORU Department of Music is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

"Music students benefit from the faculty interaction of a small, private university along with the resources of an outstanding music school."

— Dr. Edward Pierce
