LEARN MORE

Here are four of the many distinctions that make ORU so special:

Spirit-Empowered

ORU is the only university in the world that was founded on the power of the Holy Spirit. As a private Christian university, we believe that the Holy Spirit empowers all our students to excel not just in their studies, but in life and beyond.

Student-Focused

Our online courses are focused on you, the student, flexing around your schedule and needs. Plus, we provide plenty of resources to help you stay on track to finish your degree program on time.

Person-Driven

Your life can't be just about academics; neither should your education. At ORU, we believe in educating the whole person—mind, spirit, and body—so that our students graduate ready to be whole leaders for the whole world.

Leadership-Oriented

At ORU, we know our graduates will be leaders in some way or another, so we prepare each and every one of our students to start leading from the moment they arrive in their chosen career.
