MUSIC DEPARTMENT APPLICATION

Bachelor of Music in Music Therapy

ORU

ORAL ROBERTS UNIVERSITY

MUSIC THERAPY PROGRAM ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

The Bachelor of Music degree prepares students for clinical careers in music therapy, working with a broad range of clinical populations. Applicants must first audition and be accepted into the Music Department in order to be considered for this degree program.

Admission requirements and criteria for the Bachelor of Music—Music Therapy degree include:

1. ORU Undergraduate On-line Application
The undergraduate application is available online. All applicants must submit their application using this online process (www.oru.edu).
2. Submit Official High School Transcript and SAT/ACT (and TOEFL, if applicable)
The TOEFL examination is required of all foreign students who have not received a degree from an accredited high school where the official language is English. International students must submit an official TOEFL score of at least 213 on the computer based exam or at least 550 on the paper-based exam.
3. ORU Music Department Application
4. Three Letters of Recommendation
5. Music Audition: Auditions are held at the beginning of each semester as well as during College Weekends and Quest Whole Person Events.
6. Music Therapy Interview: All incoming students must complete a live interview with the Director of Music Therapy to be considered for admission. Contact Dr. Hayoung Lim, Music Therapy Director at hlim@oru.edu or 918.495.7505 to schedule an interview.

AUDITION PROCEDURE

Students accepted into the Music Major Program at ORU are required to pass an audition in the major area of performance as listed on this application form. Once the music department has received your application, an audition will be scheduled for the campus event you plan to attend. At the time of your audition, you will be required to take theory and piano placement exams. In person auditions are preferred; however, a recent high-quality video recording is acceptable and can be submitted electronically. If you have questions regarding the application, audition, or testing process, please contact the Music Department at 918.495.7500 or email music@oru.edu. To schedule an audition, please return your application to the music department via email, fax, or mail.

AUDITION REPERTOIRE

- 1. Pianist – a composition by J.S. Bach; a movement or two from a classical sonata by Mozart, Haydn, or Beethoven; two contrasting compositions from the Romantic period (Chopin, Schumann); and one composition by a 20th-century composer (Bartok, Copland, etc.); all major scales with both hands simultaneously in sixteenth notes at M.M. 80*, two octaves.
* Those auditioning to major in piano performance must play scales at M.M. 104.
- 2. Organists – three or four compositions from standard organ literature of various periods (Bach, Franck, or Mendelssohn); or play piano audition (above).
- 3. Singers – one song in a foreign language (Italian, French, or German);p two additional compositions in contrasting styles and periods. Songs found of State Music Contest lists are acceptable.
- 4. String Players – a movement from a Bach solo Sonata or partita; a first movement from a concerto; and another work of your own choosing; major and minor scales in sixteenth notes at M.M. 104.
- 5. Wind and Brass Instruments – three selections of contrasting styles from the standard repertoire (sonatas, concertos, solo pieces of contest quality); all major and minor scales.
- 6. Percussion – three selections of contest repertoire; an exercise inclusive of rudiments; solo selections to include use of mallets.
- 7. Guitar – Must demonstrate guitar aptitude. Knowledge of open chords, major/minor scales and bar chords in several positions. Must have a basic fret board knowledge (0-12th fret) and be able to play the ionian, mixolydian and aeloian (natural minor) scale. A finger style of classical piece could be substituted for the above qualifications. A demonstration of finger-picking is a plus.
- 8. Composition Majors – must complete one of the auditions above according to your primary instrument and provide a written and taped copy of two pieces that you have composed within the last 2 years.
