

Global Education Conference

Rose State College

Agenda

November 3, 2007

Morning Session

8:00 – 9:00 Registration & Refreshments

9:00 – 10:15 Greetings & Conference Overview

Representative Shane Jett

Putting the World into World Class Education presentation

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Karen Kovach-Webb, Fund for Teachers

10:15 Break

10:30 – 11:30 Teachers who have benefited from the Fund for Teachers will share their experiences from Alaska to Africa

Lynn Tilley, Comanche Elementary

Belinda Christ, Star Spencer High School

Rebecca Gilley, Deer Creek Public Schools

Cindy Scarberry, Monroe Elementary, Norman

11:30 - 12:30 Lunch

1st Drawing for Door Prizes

Must be present to win!

One Dell Axim Pocket PC

T-Shirts

Books

DVDs

Afternoon Sessions

International Activities in Oklahoma Schools

12:30 pm

ROOM 108	Chinese in the kindergarten class Using videoconferencing technology, the Confucius Institute at the University of Oklahoma and Comanche Public Schools are partnering together to bring an after-school Chinese Language class to kindergarteners. Participants from both entities will share insights, success stories, and the importance of early language learning for young students in today's global community. Dr. Sharon Gou, Confucius Center, OU Luping Wang, Confucius Center, OU Marilyn Pineda, Comanche Elementary Paula Williams, Comanche Elementary
ROOM 109	"Diversity....Sharing the Joy of Who We Are" Come discover how one school celebrates diversity in a community in which over 40 different languages is spoken and in which there are over 400 students from foreign countries. Come discover how to share the joy of who we are! Felisa Hilbert, ELL Assistant, Broken Arrow Public Schools. Kay Long, Multicultural Literacy Night, Lynn Wood Elementary, Broken Arrow Summit Mall Global Market Edmond Schools celebrates the 96 different languages spoken throughout the district. At Summit Middle School we have 117 students who speak a second language. At our GLOBAL MARKET we celebrate our wonderful cultural diversities and explore economics. Students make products or services connected with the country they have chosen. Kathy Agosta Shannon, Summit Middle School, Edmond
ROOM 111	Exploring Humanitarian Law: Instructional Resources for Middle School and High School Teachers Exploring Humanitarian Law (EHL) is an international education program for middle and secondary students that explore ethical and humanitarian issues arising from armed conflict. It emphasizes the positive changes in attitude that can evolve from the ideas of respect for life and human dignity, civic responsibility, and solidarity. EHL can be incorporated in a wide range of subject areas and its teaching methods reinforce many skills such as communication, disagreeing respectfully, reasoning, research, problem-solving and critical thinking. Kim Pennington, Moore High School
ROOM 110	Cultural Boxes - Magic Key to Global Understanding "I hear and I forget. I see and I remember. I do and I understand," Confucius. This quote describes the impact of the Culture Box Program, started in 1992 at Tulsa's Eisenhower International School as a joint project with the Tulsa Global Alliance. Eisenhower is Oklahoma's only immersion school. At present, 43 cultures are represented by 49 boxes which are checked out by teachers, principals, scout troops, home schools, clubs, camps, etc., reaching 5,000 per year. Boxes contain artifacts, lessons, books, music, videos, clothes, foods, spices, maps, dolls, games, etc. Children test the recipes, read the books, smell the spices, hold the dolls, copy the art, etc. Grants have funded the project. Emily Wood, Founder and Coordinator of Cultural Box Program, Eisenhower International School, Tulsa

International Infusion in Oklahoma Education

1:30 pm

ROOM 109	"Learning Globally and Acting Locally", the Power of Partnerships
	The history of international work at K20 and its influence on the Center's emerging international programs. Charlotte is the director of state and international partnerships at the K20 Center.
	Charlotte Jones , Director, Mentoring and Leadership Research and Academic Programs K-20 Center, University of Oklahoma
	Dr. Marguerite Keese , Director of REESE Research, K-20 Center, University of Oklahoma
	Dr. Mark Nanny , Associate Professor, University of Oklahoma College of Engineering and College of Earth and Energy
	Janis Slater , Coordinator of K-20 Science Programs, K-20 Center, University of Oklahoma

ROOM 108	Global Impact on Oklahoma K-12 Schools
	The significance of the global impact on Oklahoma schools including the influx of numerous ELL students, as well as, perspectives and insights of teaching in international schools world-wide.
	Dr. Dwight Davidson , Graduate School of Education, Oral Roberts University
	Mr. Steve Glazier , Director of Counseling Services, Northern Oklahoma College
	Dr. Calvin Roso , Graduate School of Education, Oral Roberts University

ROOM 111	Megaconference: Welcome to the Worldwide Meeting!
	In this annual videoconference, elementary and secondary students around the world have the opportunity to communicate, collaborate, and contribute to each other's learning through interactive presentations and real time conversation using H.323 through the Internet. Discover how YOUR students can join in as observers, or interactive participants, or presenters.
	Carol Scott , Library Media Specialist, Mustang

ROOM 110	Putting the World into World-Class Education
	Recognizing that we are all members of a world community and that we all have responsibilities to each other is not romantic rhetoric, but modern economic and social reality. Surprising events are taking place in Oklahoma schools to prepare students for success in a globalized world.
	Desa Dawson , Director of World Languages, State Department of Education

Exchange Evaluations for Certificates of Attendance		2:30 pm
2nd Drawing for door prizes Must be present to win! Two Dell Axim Pocket PCs OASIS Bag T-Shirts Books DVDs Gift Certificate		