

FACULTY LOAD REPORTS 2010-2013

Full-Time Teaching Load in College of Education

The normal full-time teaching load is 24-25 credit hours per academic year (fall and spring semesters) for undergraduate faculty members; extra compensation begins at 26 hours. The normal full-time teaching load is 18 credit hours per academic year (fall and spring semesters) for graduate faculty members; extra compensation begins at 20 hours. Generally, advisement time, class preparation time, course coordination duties, and office hours do not earn load credit; such duties are responsibilities of all faculty members.

Office Hours for College of Education Faculty

Faculty members are expected to post and maintain a schedule that provides a minimum of 7½ office hours per week distributed with at least one hour per academic day for the purpose of advising and/or consulting with students. Faculty members are expected to be involved in teaching, student advisement, student visitation, and/or other related on-campus duties at least 24 hours per week during the academic year (fall and spring semesters). Each faculty member shall file a copy of his or her weekly schedule with the college dean by the end of the first week of each semester.
