ASSESSMENT WEEK MEETING NOTES

April 19-20, 2011

Tuesday, December 19, 2011

- 8:30 -8:40 Dr. Dunham opened with a devotion and prayer.
- 8:40-9:00 Dr. Boyd opened the meeting and presented an overview of the work for the day. Faculty would be working in ePortfolio to complete any assessments still needing to be completed.
- 9:00-12:00 Faculty each worked on assessments to be completed.
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch was provided on the 22nd Floor of CityPlex.
- 1:00-2:00 Dr. Calvin Roso presented research by Goe, Bell and Little.
A handout of Characteristics of Highly Effective Teacher Qualities was distributed to faculty for reference in discussion.
- 2:00-2:30 Group Discussions: Faculty worked in groups to evaluate the Cooperating Teacher Evaluation rubric completed by teacher candidates after internships, and to identify qualities specific to ORU to be added. Faculty worked on a list of highly qualified teachers working in the Tulsa area schools with which to place intern teachers in the future.
- 2:30-4:30 Dr. Boyd introduced the National Survey of Student Engagement with background of the instrument and explanation of the categories of comparative institutions.
Dr. Mary Lou Miller presented an interpretation of the NSSE scores. Some of the strengths noted were qualities regarding diversity, collaboration and service learning. The majority of candidates had positive responses to academic advisement and overall academic experience.
Undergraduate Faculty analyzed NSSE data to determine possible program improvements needed.
Graduate Faculty reviewed the NSSE report for possible input into current survey changes to be made before sending to alumni.

Wednesday, April 20, 2011

- 8:30-10:30 Agenda was revised for the morning. The task assigned faculty this morning was to review Standard 2 from the Institutional Report and make revision suggestions. Items to be included in the revisions were as follows:
- revision of the institutional standards to incorporate the new InTASC standards.
 - revisions to ePortfolio artifacts was begun in 2009. The artifacts were reassessed for strength to the program and the number was reduced to most effective and necessary artifacts.
 - comment should be made as to the value derived from the professional community task force comprised of unit faculty, candidates and public and private school constituents.
 - addition of information on the reading test administered by Dr. Martin should be included.
- 10:30-12:00 Meeting adjourned for Chapel
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-2:00 Professional Development: Faculty presented information from conferences attended this year.
- 2:00-3:30 Undergraduate Academic Council and Graduate Academic Council met to discuss on-going business from the end of the year as well look at revisions to the Student Teacher Handbook and other rubrics.
- 3:30-4:00 Final meeting of College of Education Faculty Senate
