

Faculty Profile - Ms. Lori Cook

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND CULTURAL STUDIES

UNIVERSITY SUCCESS

Ms. Lori Cook is the instructor for University Success.

Ms. Cook has taught this course for ten years. She is committed to helping students in their development as they journey through their college career. Ms. Cook is passionate about living out the mission and vision of Oral Roberts University in her everyday life. She earned a Bachelor's degree in English Education and a Master's degree in Business Management from Oral Roberts University.

About the Course

University Success will help you to develop and strengthen your study skills, time management, and relationship building skills, along with techniques to succeed in college and life.

Development of critical thinking, leadership skills and academic principles needed for success in a student's calling in life will also be addressed. You will discover your learning style, develop ownership for your learning. You will also become acquainted with the campus, its resources, and facilities.

Contact information

Email: lcook@oru.edu

Office Location: LRC 2nd floor, Student Life, Office 2W1