

Faculty Profile - Mr. Mandel Chenoweth

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND CULTURAL STUDIES

GLOBAL CRAFT

Mr. Mandel Chenoweth is the professor for the Global Art course.

Mr. Chenoweth has 27 years of experience teaching in Oklahoma schools. During that time, he was named Teacher of the Year five times. He believes when we are creating art we are following the example of our creator, by mirroring the beauty of creation.

About the Course

This is a survey course in which participants will be making crafts from around the world. These are hands on projects with historical and cultural concepts. It will include projects from France, China, Italy, Mexico and more. The class is designed to expand student's understanding about what is art, and where it comes from.
