

Faculty Profile - Ms. Julie Byrtus

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND CULTURAL STUDIES

READING 099

Professor Byrtus' teaches Reading classes at ORU.

Ms. Julie Byrtus has been teaching since graduating from Oral Roberts University in 1990 with a B.Sc. Elementary Education. She has a M.Ed. in Reading and in addition to having homeschooled her own children for sixteen years, she teaches eighth grade homeschoolers weekly.

Professor Byrtus' passion is for teaching and to see students succeed

About the Course

This course will help students to become more skilled at understanding, interpreting, and finding information from what they read, as they strengthen basic reading skills including structural analysis, context clues, reading comprehension, and inference skills. Through technology, interactive activities, and the use of reading aids, students will also develop their vocabulary.

Contact information

Email: jbyrtus@oru.edu
Office number: GC 5B10