

Faculty Profile – Pastor Jamie Austin

COLLEGE OF THEOLOGY LEADERSHIP AND MINISTRY IN A FACEBOOK FASTFOOD WORLD

Mr. Jamie Austin is the professor for Leadership and Ministry in a Facebook, Fastfood World

Rev. Jamie Austin has twenty years of experience in Youth Ministry. He is a graduate of Southwestern Assemblies of God University with a Master's Degree from ORU. He was a student of Jeannie Mayo's Cadre' and served on the A.G. District Youth Staff. Pastor Austin has a passion for the next generation and lives his belief that all ministry is relationship based. Currently, he is the Lead Pastor of Woodlake Church, a multi-site church in Tulsa County with a desire to impact the community through the local church.

About the Course

Come and discover how God has uniquely wired you to face the challenges of a world where Super Bowl commercials cost millions of dollars to air and millions of kids go to bed hungry on the same night. What makes you tick? What ticks you off? What about the hard stuff? What do you bring to the conversation? Learn practical ways to lead yourself and others as you seek kingdom solutions to the challenges facing this generation.

Contact information

Email: TBC

Office number: TBC