

Faculty Profile – Pastor Jamie Austin

COLLEGE OF THEOLOGY YOUTH CULTURE AND FAITH DEVELOPMENT

Mr. Jamie Austin is the professor for Youth Culture and Faith Development

Rev. Jamie Austin has twenty years of experience in Youth Ministry. He is a graduate of Southwestern Assemblies of God University with a Master's Degree from ORU. He was a student of Jeannie Mayo's Cadre' and served on the A.G. District Youth Staff. Pastor Austin has a passion for the next generation and lives his belief that all ministry is relationship based. Currently, he is the Lead Pastor of Woodlake Church, a multi-site church in Tulsa County with a desire to impact the community through the local church

About the Course

This course seeks to develop an advanced understanding of the culture of young people and how to minister to adolescents in the throes of the physical, social, educational and faith development issues. This course recognizes that youth ministry is cross-cultural and endeavors to consider and discover new ways to equip adolescents to live as fully functional Christian adults.

Contact information

Email: TBC

Office number: TBC