

Faculty Profile - Prof. Kerry Loescher

COLLEGE OF THEOLOGY AND MINISTRY

YOUTH CULTURE AND FAITH DEVELOPMENT

Kerry Loescher is the professor for Youth Culture and Faith Development

Prof. Kerry Loescher holds a Bachelor of Arts in Church Ministries and a Master of Arts in Christian Education. With more than 20 years of professional youth ministry experience, she writes and speaks nationally. She specializes in training leaders to engage next generations and their families with the gospel. She is currently working on a Ph.D. in Educational Studies.

About the Course

This course seeks to develop an advanced understanding of the culture of young people and how to minister to adolescents during significant physical, social, educational, and faith development. Come discover strategic ways to equip adolescents (and their families) to successfully navigate this season of life so that all flourish and come to live as fully functional Christian adults.

Contact information

Email: kloescher@oru.edu

Office number: 918 495 6102