

Career

- Oral Roberts University, adjunct 1996 – 2004, regular 2004 – present
- Union Public Schools, Oklahoma, 8th and 9th grade teacher 1989 – 1991
- Broken Arrow Public Schools, Oklahoma, middle school teacher 1981 – 1989

Honors

- Outstanding College Communication Educator Award from the Oklahoma Speech, Communication and Theater Association 2015
- Outstanding Faculty Member College of Arts and Cultural Studies 2011-12
- Phoebe Apperson Hearst Outstanding Educator Nominee of Oklahoma 1988 – 89
- Outstanding Student in Speech Education, Oral Roberts University 1981

Service to ORU

- Coordinates the department's general education curriculum, facilities, special events, and faculty
- Serves the College of Education
 - writing the program review for accreditation
 - supervising interns
 - managing the program, advising students in the Communication Arts Education major
- Teaches Oral Communication, Organizational Communication, Oral Interpretation, and Methods of Teaching Speech, Drama, and Debate
- Emcees and preforms voice-overs at commencement and other major events.
- Served as president and as secretary in various faculty organizations.
- Mentored new ORU faculty, served six faculty members on their advancement-in-rank committees, presented to ORU faculty ePortfolio rubric development
- Served ORU athletics as honorary coach to men's and women's teams

Service to the Community

- Reviewed teacher preparation programs for state accreditation for seven universities
- Served Redeemer Covenant Church on the board, co-leading a mission trip and teaching
- Co-lead ORU teacher candidates and church volunteers to refurbish schools
- Co-presented electronic assessment and interpersonal communication assessment at state and regional conventions
- Mentored first year primary and secondary teachers in the Tulsa area
- Judged high school competitions

Pursuit of Wholeness

- Pictured and quoted on the front page Tulsa World discussing GOP presidential candidates 2012
- 3rd place in 2015 5K, 8th place in 2013 Tulsa Run 5K, 3rd place in Team Triathlon 2010

Education

- Oral Roberts University Ma 2002
- Oral Roberts University BA 1981