

VITA

I. Name: George E. Gillen, Ed.D.

Rank: Professor

Tenure: 1975

Department: School of Business

Year Joined the Institution: 1965

Teaching Experience:

Areas of Involvement (in teaching)

Management Courses

II. Education Background (include fields of specialization)

University of Tulsa, BS, in Management 1957

University of Tulsa, MBA, in Management 1962

Oklahoma State University, Graduate Studies, 1964

University of Tulsa, Ed.D. (Education Administration with concentration in Management, 1972.

Cambridge University, Post Doctoral Seminars, 1973

Tulsa Junior College (AA) Sociology with concentration in Management 1991

III. Prior Experience not in Education

Assistant Personnel Manager Public Service of Oklahoma, 1957-1960

IV. Professional memberships (include offices held)

Administrative Management Society

Pi Gamma Mu

Delta Sigma Pi

Kappa Delta Pi

Who's Who in Education 1996

Outstanding Educators 1974

Phi Beta Lambda

Chi Rho

Alpha Phi Omega

Who's Who in the Southwest 1976

Outstanding Supervising Professor - Small Business Institute Directors Association 1997

State of Oklahoma Hall of Fame OSSEF 1996

- V. Professional meetings attended (include dates)
AACSP Convention, Las Vegas, NV June, 1995
Accrediting Seminar on North Central Accrediting Agency, Alverno College, Milwaukee, WI, June 1996
ACBSP Seminar, Kansas City, MO, June, 1998
ACBSP Convention, Overland Park, KS, June, 2002
AACSP Convention, Houston, TX
- VI. Papers presented (include dates)
“Social Impact and Economic Assessment,” March 1977
National Science Foundation, University of Missouri, Kansas City, Missouri, March, 1977.
(MBO in a School of Business) March, 1978 American Academy of Management
“Economic Indicators” March, 1978
National Science Foundation, University of Missouri, Kansas City, Missouri, March, 1978.
- VII. Publications
Research Grant – “The Arkansas River Basin Social and Economics Effects Assessment,” 1976
Tulsa Urban Society, “Social and Economics Background Information,” 1977
“Social and Economic Impact Assessment” – Inglewood Lake Study, 1979
(These three above projects were published by the Corp of Engineers and brought in $60,500 in grant money.)
- VIII. Other research activity
Small Business Institute Research
Oklahoma Medical Association, Lawton, Oklahoma branch
Research Grant – “An Analysis of the Productivity Level of Computer Operations in Medical Testing” 1970
- IX. Consulting
Management Consultant for Personnel of the City of Tulsa, 1979
Management Consultant for SCORE, Tulsa Chamber of Commerce, 1970-1985.
Management Consultant for Tulsa District of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, 1975-2006.
- X. Professional growth activities
- XI. Seminars, training programs, etc., conducted for business ad Industry
Strategic Planning Seminars for Lutheran Churches in Oklahoma
- XII. Professional presentations, speeches, etc.
Southwest Business Convention, July, 2002
Mountain Plains Convention, June, 2004 “The Management Impact of NAFTA”

XIII. Institutional services performed

Served as chairman of every major committee of the university, 1965 to present.
Served as president for the Faculty Senate, 1977.
Served as vice president for the Faculty Senate, 1976.
Served as member-at-large representative for the Faculty Senate, 1975.
Served as treasurer for the Faculty Senate, 1965.
Received Regent's Outstanding Faculty Award, 1975-1976.
Served as advisor to Student Senate, 1978-1979, 1979-1980, 1980-1981.
Served on many Ad Hoc Committees, 1965 to present.
Participated in seminars for teachers who are participating in the Tulsa World Stock Market Contest for quite a number of years including the November conferences in 2000 and 2001. He also developed a computerized economic model for Oral Roberts University to make economic decisions, revenues, and cost analysis.

XIV. Recognition and honors

Outstanding Business Professor Southwestern College 1964 (Vote of students)
Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year, Oral Roberts University, 1976
Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year, Oral Roberts University, 1987
Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year, Oral Roberts University, 1995
Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year ORU School of Business, 2005
Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year, ORU SLLE, 2006

XV. Professionally related community activities

Strategic Planning consultant to Grace Lutheran Church
Strategic Planning consultant to Tulsa Lutherans Circuit
Organizational Behavior and consultant to Tulsa Lutherans Circuit
Management Consultant for Channel 8 News broadcast.
Management Consultant for Channel 6 News broadcast.
Management Principles Advisor for Radio Station KXOJ 100.9 broadcast.