

Faculty Senate Minutes

October 28, 2013

- 1) Robert Kiel opened with a scripture reading, a small devotion, and prayer.
- 2) Minutes were approved.
- 3) Proposal #1, to create a university-wide grievance committee, was defeated 11-10 (2/3 approval vote is required).
- 4) Proposal #2, to revise the current ORU student academic grievance procedures, was not considered.
- 5) Proposal #3, to recommend to the Board of Trustees that Mart Green be awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree, passed unanimously.
- 6) New programs not needing Senate approval were presented. The College of Arts and Cultural Studies reported on: Chinese Mandarin, Global Studies (Asian, Latin America, and Middle East), and Contemporary Option for the Music Performance major. The College of Science and Engineering reported on Industrial/Organizational Psychology and Social Justice. The College of Theology and Ministry presented Global Ministry and the Marketplace
- 7) New programs needing Senate approval were discussed and will be voted upon within 30 days. The College of Education and the College of Arts and Cultural Studies presented English Language Teaching in the Global Classroom.
- 8) The meeting was adjourned at 12:20.