Date

Success in college and in work world as well, is often based on the ability to follow directions and meet deadlines. Students that do not follow these instructions, submit their application to the wrong contact person, leave out required elements, are not public relations majors or apply past deadline will be disqualified from consideration. Applicants should attach the essay, faculty letter and transcript to this completed form. Students should not leave the recommendation letter task in the hands of the faculty member; they should pick up and deliver the letter themselves so as to not be disqualified due to an oversight. Faculty members that serve on the scholarship committee cannot write recommendation letters for applicants. Students awarded this scholarship may reapply in consecutive years. The awarded student must be enrolled at ORU during correlating semesters in order to receive funds. The successful applicant will receive the scholarship funds during the fall semester. Submit application to: ATTN: Chris Putman, Communications, Arts and Media Department, LRC 126C, Oral Roberts University, 7777 South Lewis Avenue, Tulsa, OK 74171, or by email to: cputman@oru.edu.

Application Submission Deadline: (in office or postmarked) by March 15
